Colours of the Moment Series

This collection of paintings is an exploration of colour, form and line-- but most of all, of intuition. The paintings were done without planning the final product. In this way, they are a raw expression of the feeling or the memory tapped at the moment of creation. They are two dimensional slices of being- expressions of inspiration.

Fire and Digital Art

Prints of Fire Paintings, organic fractals, and other digital art come ready to hang. The art is displayed on on a 3/4 inch gallery mount board with black edges and a 1/8" black trim. The result is a clean modern look that emphasizes the beauty of the fire image. This is the choice mounting of the artist and is used in his gallery shows as it easily looks good on almost any wall. The print also comes laminated with scratch resistant, UV protective coating. Prints are ready to hang out of the box, or can be further framed as desired.
