

DIGITAL PAINTING PRINTING INSTRUCTIONS

This is a two page, high resolution PDF document. You may print this document to make 8x11 or enlarged poster size prints (up to 32 x 11) for your aesthetic enjoyment. You may either print this document on your own printer or bring it to a print shop to be printed in large format.

Home Printing Instructions

1. Save this document to your hard drive. Go to: File > Save as.
2. To print, first go to Page Setup.
3. Choose your printer's highest resolution and quality.
4. Go to the print menu. Indicate to your printer to print only page 2.
5. You may wish to do a test print.
6. Use high quality photo paper.
7. Print.
8. Hang!

Print Shop Instructions

1. Save this document to a location on your hard drive.
2. Burn it to a CD ROM or e-mail it to your print company. Alternately, some printers may be able to work using the URL of this PDF document. Direct them to the URL currently in the address field of your browser.
3. Request that page two of this document be printed on a heavy poster paper at highest quality.
4. Suggested sizes: 200% to 400% of current 8.5 x 11 format. (Image is in CMYK format).
5. Print and hang!

About this document:

This is an original Russell Maier digital Fire Painting. Russell Maier reserves all copyrights on this image and design. In the spirit of fire painting, you may distribute, share and print this image as much as you would like. Please do not remove title information and in all cases indicate the www.russs.net source of this painting. For commercial use please see additional details on www.russs.net

Russell Maier's Fire Paintings are free to the world. Get yours at russs.net. You are invited to give back to keep the creative process ongoing. You may also order prints and posters from the russs.net site. Ideas, comments and criticism are invited at firepainting@russs.net

